In some of these areas, we are the only provider of vision services especially in rural communities. Years of research have proven that the home and familiar community settings are optimal for the development of children birth to age three. We recognize that caregivers are the critical "first teachers" in these settings. Our programs address the unique challenges and educational needs of caregivers whose children are blind or visually impaired. We educate and empower caregivers with specific strategies so that they may help their children reach developmental milestones. The intended
